PROTECTIVE CONVOY

Liquor-Laden Autos Adopt Naval Tactics to Thwart "Revenuers"

Danville, Va., July 12.—Bootleggers who make their hauls in automobiles have resorted to naval tactics to thwart determined officers in apprehending the drivers of liquor laden cars. They now run with convoys, usually a larger car which aims to delay the officers so that the bootleggers with the goods may escape.

A recent adventure in Martinsville reveals this. Officers on Wednesday night saw two suspicious cars headed for Patrick. They waylaid the cars a few miles beyond Martinsville expecting the machines to return. They did, a small car with a heavy load being followed by a seven passenger machine of powerful build. The little car went by like a flash and when the officers put in chase, the heavier car maneuvered to keep the road and blocked all efforts of the Henry County officers to get by. They did, however, by taking advantage of a wide sweep, and overhauled the smaller car as it entered Martinsville and shot at it several times as it dodged through the streets finally to crash into a ditch. The larger car disappeared.

The river of the ditched car escaped, but a youth half stunned was found by the wreck. He declined to give his name, but yesterday it was learned that he is E. J. Talbott, of Keeling. He refused to say who owned the car, but it was established by the local police through the license tag that the machine was K. D. McMasters, of this city. He was greatly concerned to hear the news and said that the car was in charge of Tim Payne when it left here. He has not been found. In the machine thirty gallons of liquor was found. Talbott is in jail at Martinsville.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE

Child Struck and Run Over by Train Unhurt

Butler, Pa., July 12.—Agnes De Amore, the 2 year old daughter of Antonio De Amore, of Mill street, this city, has the screen actors faded, in that there was no deception about the thriller which she staged on the tracks of the Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad, which passes near her home. The child wandered from the yard of her home and went to the railroad right of way. She was sitting between the rails of a main track, playing contentedly when a double header freight train came thundering along.

Horror stricken spectators saw the child's peril when it was too late. The pilot of the head locomotive struck the tot a glancing blow and she fell face downward between the rails. The two locomotives and ten freight cars passed over her. Witnesses of the accident rushed to the track expecting to find mangled flesh and bones. But Agnes fooled them. She rose to her feet and began yelling lustily for her mother. Her clothes were mussed and she had suffered only a few minor bruises and cuts about the head and face.

OLD DOMINIONS WIN TWO RACES

CONTESTS ARE CLOSE

With a rush of speed that fairly dazzled even the members of the club and local supporters, the Old Dominion Boat Club, of this city captured the first two races of the third annual regatta of the Southern Rowing Association, which was held on the Potomac river last Saturday afternoon, gave way in the following events to the Potomacs, of Washington and finished snugly in second place with two trophies and two medals to their credit.

The first two boats to face the starter in the regatta were the Old Dominions and the Potomacs in the Junior doubles. They hung neck and neck for the first half mile, when the Old Dominion crew, composed of Oliver and R. Beaton started to draw away from their opponents and at the finish line about four lengths of open water were visible between the two boats.

Four entries were listed for the second event, the junior gig race and this was just as easy a win for the locals the first race had been. They held the lead throughout the entire mile pull and finished far ahead of any opponent. The Potomacs were second, Ariels third and Virginias fourth.

But after the second race, the Old Dominion's star apparently set. The third race was the one which the local crew had been touted to take and they certainly made the race a fight from the start to the finish. The Potomacs had a slight edge at the finish and shoved their boat over the line but half a length ahead of the O. D. boys. The race was hard fought from the crack of the starter's pistol and the local boys deserve great credit for the bull dog tenacity displayed in hanging to their opponents heels to the finish.

In the junior eight event, the race was won after a gruelling drive by the Potomac club, after an accident had delayed them until the Virginias and the Old Dominions were well in the lead. However, when the red-jerseyed rowers finally straightened out, they put their backs to the tack and at the finish were a good length ahead of their nearest competitor, the Virginia boat club crew. The Old Dominions were clearly outclassed in this event as the locals have not done a great deal of eight oar work. But they are

ARMY OFFICER ON TRIAL

Is Charged With Shooting Victim With Table Salt

Cartagena, Spain, July 12.—Lieutenant Enrique Morana has been placed on trial before a court-martial here on a charge of causing the death in July last year of Private Nesa, by firing a cartridge filled with table salt into his body point-blank, apparently for the purpose of amusing himself. The charge passed through the soldier's body, causing the death almost immediately.

The State's attorney asked that a sentence of seventeen years imprisonment be imposed upon the Lieutenant while for the Corporal Hilario Fuertes who loaded the rifle under Lieutenant Morena's orders, he urged a sentence of one year.

RICH OFF POTATOES

Only Comly Cars Satisfy Tastes of Eastern Shore Colored Farmers

Onancock, Va., July 12.—Thursday was the banner day of the Eastern Shore of Virginia Produce Exchange, the sales being $60,000. The one million dollar mark would have been reached, but for the shortage of cars.

It is estimated that only 40 per cent of the potatoes on the Eastern Shore has been marked. The price this week has been from $10 to $11.50 a barrel.

In Accomack many of the large land owners live in towns and the farms are run on shares, the tenant often being a negro.

To own an automobile is the height of the average negro's ambition. This season the receipts from strawberries and potatoes have been unusual and many negroes are putting their share of the farm's income into automobiles. Often nothing but an automobile to the full mount of their bank accounts will satisfy.

Friday a demonstrator was turned back at the gate with an $800 car, $3,000 being the negro's price. The negroes are not the only ones buying cars. It is impossible for the dealers to fill orders. A large business is also being done in motor trucks and tractors.

Wm. Turner, Colored, To Be Tried in Richmond

Richmond, Va., July 12.—A venire of fifty men has been summoned by United States Marshal Saunders from which to select a jury of twelve men for the trial of Wm. Turner, colored, charged with shooting and killing T. Morgan Moore of this city. The trial will take place in the United States Court in Richmond before Judge Edmund Waddill beginning Friday.

Turner was indicted on three counts by a grand jury in Alexandria, one for the murder of Moore, the other for the attacking of Miss Pearl Clark, Moore's fiancee, who was Moore's companion at the time and the third for robbing Miss Clark.

HURT IN FALL ABOARD SHIP

Leon Hutchison, 21 years old, employed at the yards of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, fell from the upper deck into the hold of a vessel in course of construction at the yards Saturday morning, suffering a broken leg and arm and several minor injuries. He was removed to the Alexandria Hospital, where he is under the care of Dr. H. A. Wood, the shipyard surgeon. Hutchinson's home is in Washington.

KICKED AND BEATEN BY MOB

"All Highest's" Brother Runs Gauntlet and is Thrown Into Cell

Berlin, July 12.—Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of the former German Emperor and in the heyday of the Hohenzollerns the idol of the German navy and the most respected and beloved of the Prussian princes, was made to run the gauntlet and submit to intolerable tortures at the hands of a gang of field laborers, led by a radical in the tattered uniform of a Hussar and with a silken red rosette in the buttonhole to tell of his radical proclivities.

Not content merely with stripping the princeling of all his regal prerogatives, these men stood in parallel lines and made him race between them, while plebian kicks were aimed at the royal limbs and plebian blows belabored regal head and face. Then, wneh this form of torture had been ended, the former commander of the navy and hitherto sacrosanct from attack, was hauled to the jail like a felon, tossed into a cheap cell and then tortured as often as the whim of the laborers guided them to his prison pen.

The almost incredible story of the treatment to the prince is given in the Ost Pruessische Zeitung. Its author says that the story is authentic and came to him, he avers, from a member of the prince's immediate family.

DEATH CALLS EUGENIE

Ex-Empress of France and Once the Most Beautiful Woman in Europe Was 94

Madrid, July 12.—Former Empress Eugenie of France, widow of Napoleon III, and in her day the most beautiful woman of Europe, died here yesterday morning. She was 94 years old.

CUTTING AFFRAY

Charles Lewis, Colored, Attacked by Wm. Watts, Colored, Sunday Night

Charles Lewis, colored, was badly cut with a razor last night while at his home, 808 Montgomery street. The cutting the police say was done by William Watts, colored. The affair followed a dispute it is stated. Lewis was cut on the face, back and ear and was taken to the Alexandria Hospital where he is being treated by Dr. S. B. Moore. Following the affair Watts escaped, although the police secured the neighborhood for several hours searching for him.

Gives $4000 Bond

Samuel Sorrell Charged With Killing Brother.

Samuel L. Sorrell, charged with shooting and killing his brother, appeared in the corporation court today and renewed his bond in the sum of $4,000 for his appearance before the next grand jury. His surety is James Doherty. Several days ago Sorrell was relensed on the foregoing bond until today.

It is expected that a special grand jury will be called at an early date to consider the case of Sorrell.

The shooting took place Sunday morning July 4 aboard an ark in the northeastern section of the city following a quarrel.

HOLD UP CARD GAME

Thugs Like Coney Island Players Are Put Well—Flee in Auto

New York, July 12.—Six masked and armed auto bandits held up the Seminole Club at 295 West Thirty-first street, Coney Island, early yesterday morning and escaped with more than $5,000 in cash. Four of the armed men entered the club while the other two stood guard over the automobile, which was left with engine running.

About 20 members of the club were playing cards when the bandits entered. The members were lined up with their faces to the wall and their hands above their heads and covered by two of the men while the other two robbers went through their pockets, took their cash and compelled them to slip off diamond rings and give up other jewelry.

PLUNGE IN BARREL

C. S. Stephens of England Dies in Attempt to Negotiate Niagara Horseshoe

Niagara Falls, N. Y., July 12. Charles G. Stephens, of Bristol, England, was added to the victims of Niagara when he made an attempt to go over the Horseshoe Falls in an oak barrel yesterday. Great secrecy was maintained as to Stephens' plans for the trip, fearing the authorities would stop him, and as a result few saw the fatal plunge. No attempt was made to rescue, however, and Mayor Henry P. Stephens, of Niagara Falls, Ont., was the last one to shake hands with the Englishman before the barrel started on its voyage downstream.

MAY ABANDON CROP

Chatsworth, N. J., July 12.—High cost of labor, high cost of barrels and high cost of sugar forms a combination in restraint of the cranberry trade this season that has caused many growers to doubt the wisdom of harvesting their crop. The growers believe that the market could stand the increased prices that will be necessary to overcome the new costs of getting the berries to market, were it not for high priced sugar They judge from previous experience that housewives will forego cranberry sauce while profiteers control the sugar situation.

Quite a number of dealers have kept the water on their bogs in this section until after the blossoming period so that the vines could not set this year, with the prospect of little or no profit in marketing the crop. Where the bogs are in bearing the early crop prospects are excellent.

Labor Wants Union With Single Taxers and Forty-eighters

CHEERS THE SOVIETS

Keynote Speaker at Chicago Predicts People Will Follow Bolsheviki's Example.

Chicago, July 12.—Amalgamation of minority political movements under the manner of a third party drew a step nearer yesterday when the Labor Party of the United States opened its second national convention, with representatives of many other organizations presents.

The Committee of Forty-Eight and the Single Tax conventions were in recess over Sunday, but attended the Labor convention in force.

John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, a keynote speaker, brought the convention to the highest enthusiasm with a plea "That the day would come when the working people of the United States would get together and do a job such as the workers of Russia have done."

The biggest demonstration of the day was accorded this reference. Delegates stamped and whistled, and then one called for "Three cheers for Soviet Russia" they were given.

Fitzpatrick declared that there was nothing to prevent the "Hand and brain workers taking the government out of the hands of, not Americans, but international financial pirates," and advised all the minority groups to unite on the ticket.

In opening the convention, Max Hayes, chairman of the Labor party's national committee, declared that "every political group assembled in this city agrees in substance to the platform "which the Labor party had formulated last November." This statement brought forth prolonged applause in which delegates wearing badges of the Single Taxers, Forty-eighters and other elements attending the convention joined.

The November labor platform declared for nationalization of all essential industries, abolition of the United States Senate and of injunction power of judges in labor disputes, declared for the Plumb plan, steep income taxes, world wide disarmament, a national budget and limitation of "the United States Supreme Court's power to veto legislation."

The convention responded to the suggestions of Fitzpatrick and Hayes by naming a committee of twelve to confer with a similar group from the Committee of Forty-eight in an effort to develop a common ground on which all could meet. This conference was intended to iron out details that had proved stumbling blocks to amalgamation.

ALLEGED INCENDIARY

Negro Spirited Away to Jail to Prevent Possible Race Riot in Georgia

Butler, Ga., July 12.—Sam Fagin, a negro, who is said by officers to have confessed to carrying oil to the new Grand Theater, destroyed by fire Saturday night, was taken to Columbus Friday night to avert possible race trouble.

The theater had been in operation only three days. The negro, in his confession, according to the officers, said he was employed to carry oil to the new theater at 11:30 o'clock Saturday night. He carried out instructions and went home. An earlier fire broke out, he said, and he returned to the scene.

BUTTERMILK BANNED

"Real ripe buttermilk" contains 3 per cent alcohol, Dr. Herbert Watson, Delaware chemist, informed Judge Hastings in City Court of Wilmington. Every vender of buttermilk is liable to prosecution, Watson said. Long before the dry wave engulfed the whole United States buttermilk had become very popular among the "brassrail brigade," much to the astonishment of the barkeepers. It was sold at almost all bars. It was reserved for a scientist to discover the reason.

Not many years ago, in the blessed past, at this season many Alexandrians were wont to purchase cider from country people in the city market. It generally sold at 25 cents per gallon, though sometimes at 20 cents. This pleasant and generally regarded wholesome drink passed away at the advent of the arid epoch, and now buttermilk, so refreshing and nutricious, procured at lunch counters, is destined to pass away under the provisions of the Volstead act.

Many people are anxious as to the fate of coffee, as some people, on the order of Sancho Panza's table censor, are averse to the use of that beverage.

PRICES NOW AND THEN

Profiteering certainly was unknown in 1846, for there has been exhibited in Wytheville, Va., a current price list of the 11th of April of that year which quoted No. 1 butter from ten and one half to twelve cents a pound; beef, net three cents; flour, $4 a barrel; low linen, ten cents a yard; flax, twelve and one half cents a yard; lard, six to seven cents a pound; wool, twenty-five cents; wheat, eighty to eighty-five; cents a bushel; New Orleans sugar, six and one half to eight cents pound; Java coffee, twelve and one half to fourteen cents a pound; Rio coffee, nine to ten cents; brown domestic cloth, eight to nine cents a yard. The present prices are in vast contrast.

LATE EMPRESS EUGENIE

The ex-Empress Eugenie, who was a nonagenarian, paid the debt of nature in Madrid yesterday. The deceased had resided in England during the past half a century, or since the collapse of the French Empire following the war with Prussia in 1870. Her husband, Napoleon III, passed away three years after that event. The deceased was of Spanish birth, and when she wedded Napoleon III. was regarded as one of the handsomest women in Europe.

Eugenie, like all members of the human race who attain a ripe old age, passed through many sorrows. Her husband, victim of Bismarck, who forced war upon France and wrested Alsace-Lorraine from that country, took up his residence in England after his fall. He lived three years after settling in that country. The Prince Imperial, his only son, was later killed in the war between England and the Zulus.

Lame, bent and white haired, the former Empress often was called "Europe's Queen of Sorrow." She was quoted always as praying that death might end her long term of sadness, and again bring her to her husband and son.

In her extreme old age the former Empress not only hoped and prayed, but worked for the victory of the allies in the great world war of 1914-1918 by giving up her splendid home at Farnborough Hill, in Hampshire, Eng., for hospital purposes, and ministered personally to the comfort of the wounded.

While the war was in progress she had said she hoped to live to see the Germans driven from France. After half a century of seemingly hopeless waiting, she lived to see the Prussians humbled, and is said to have found contentment in her knowledge of their humiliation in the peace of Versailles.

It is recounted that when they brought her the news on November 11, 1918, of Germany's unconditional signature of the armistice terms and again last year, word of her signing on the "dotted line" at Versailles—the very Versailles where 48 years before Bismarck dictated peace with a pistol at his victim's head"—the venerable ex-rabiter of Europe's fate broke down and wept like a child, wept tears of joy. Her death occurred two days after the Germans at Spa were forced to sign the death warrant of the last remnants of the once proud Prussian war machine.

CRIME OF KILLING TIME

Many of us during our early years have had our attention directed to a significant picture. A beautiful virgin is represented weeping over a broken column. Behind her stands Time with his scythe unfurling and counting the ringlets of her hair, reminding her that sooner or later she with all her cotemporaries will fall under his strokes.

Few persons seem to realize the value of time. Too many are engaged in killing time.

Many years ago a man of national prominence wrote a bulky but interesting book. Some time after its appearance he was stopped on the street by the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. The latter extended his hand and told the author he had read his book with much interest. The writer expressed his appreciation, and said: "Mr. Beecher, you are a man whose time is cut off at both ends and abbreviated in the middle; please tell me how you secured the opportunity to read my book in its entirety." The Plymouth pastor replied: "Why I carried the book to the table when I was summoned to my meals. I generally was forced to wait about five minutes for the dishes to be placed before me. I utilized these moments in reading your work, and eventually finished it."

Percival White in the Atlantic Monthly, in writing on the value of time, makes many practical suggestions. Among other things he says:

"Cartoonists still portray Time as a toddering old man, with an hour glass and a scythe. But cartoonists cling notoriously to the obsolete. Any one else would paint him in the fullness of his youth, with a baton watch for keeping tabs on us, and a machine gun to mow us down.

"There are people, it is true, who grow up with the notion that their time is their own. If there is anything, they argue, which is free, it is time. Time, they aver, is to be had in abundance and without stint. But the maturer they grow and the further they progress, the more they appreciate that, when it comes to time, they are poverty stricken. For time is the most precious thing in the world.

"Ask the man of the hour for anything tangible, and you will find him generous. Ask him for his time, and you will find him a churl. If the business man sees a device for saving time, he will have it, at all costs. All great inventions of this age have been time saving inventions. They are great inventions because they save time. The universe, in these days, is stepping livelily, please. The world spins faster than it ued to. Into one lifetime we concentrate ten lifetimes. The problem the American sets himself is to see, not how much he can get out of life, but how much he can get into it."

COX AND THE SALOONS

In view of the fact that a good deal has been said about Governor Cox's attitude toward prohibition it is interesting to recall that he was beaten by the Cincinnati saloon owners and sympathizers in 1914 because he enforced the Sunday closing law. There never had been such a law, but Governor Cox procured the law an denforced it and lost the election. But his party nominated him again and he was elected, and two years ago he was elected a third time. Governor Cox will enforce any law on the statute book. If a state legislature or congress does not want a law enforced it can take the responsibility of repealing it; Governor Cox will not allow a statute to become a dead letter. What he approves of, and what he will advise the enactment of, is another matter. As an executive the Governor will do his duty and enforce the laws. For several years he has been the leader of the Democratic party in Ohio, which has been a very good thing for the party and for the state. He is splendidly equipped and trained to be the leader of the Democratic party in the nation and to be the chief executive of the United States.

William Jennings Bryan announces that Governor Cox represents the "interests." But his record shows that he represents most effectively interests very close to the wishes and sympathies of the people. The school children, the workingmen and the widows, the people who drive over country roads, a non-partisan judiciary, and prison reform, are good interests for a political leader to represent. Governor Cox does not ride hobbies, and there is no trace of the fanatic about him, but he has been identified with almost every measure and policy in Ohio in the last few years which has been thoroughly useful to the people, and especially the people who need some help. Those are the interests the Governor has represented for a dozen years.—(Zanesville, Ohio, Signal.

VIRGINIA NEWS

The Seaboard Fish Oil and Guano Company, of Assateague, caught 1,500,000 fish on Thursday.

One-tenth of an acre of Andrew Billmire's farm near Gaylord, Clarke county, produced 188 1-2 gallons of strawberries this summer, according to the owner, and he received $1 a gallon for the berries. He has 11,000 plants in the patch. One berry exhibited recently measured nine inches around the largest part, according to Billmire.

Calling his nephew, Elmer Rickard, to his bedside just a few minutes before he expired at his home near Springfield, Page county, Calvin Rickford, an aged and wealthy farmer, confided to the nephew the five hiding palces where his wealth might be found. Between five thousand and six thousand dollars have been found, though it is believed there is still a considerable amount hidden about the premises. For 6 years Rickard had been living alone. His death was due to having been gored by a bull.

Officials of the American Flying Club of Virginia, are arranging a meeting of that organization tomorrow night to take immediate steps for the establishment of an aviation field in Richmond for army and postal airplanes and to include Richmond in the routing of the government postal service to be operated between Washington and Atlanta, beginning in November.

One piece bathing suits as street costumes, even when worn by women not ashamed to display the "feminine from divine," while journeying from their homes to the Shields Grove lake, Richmond, will not be permitted. C. C. Liebs, appointed by Directer of Public Safety W. M. Myers as assistant superintendent of Byrd Park, today was sworn in as a special police officer by City Clerk Alfred H. McDowell, with power to make arrests. The new arresting officer will take into custody any wearer of the one piece bathing suit found in a trolley car or on the streets.

Rev. L. S. Baugher, pastor of the United Brethren Church at Edinburg, and president of the Shenandoah County Ministerial Union, has made an affidavit, reiterating that while in Harrisonburg April 23 he heard Colonel Robert F. Leedy, who is opposing Judge T. W. Harrison for the congressional nomination declares he (Leedy) "would drive the dry fanatics and hypocritical preachers to hell."

Judge R. Carter Scott, of the Richmond circuit court, will grant a hearing on the report of Special Master Scott in the West Virginia debt settlement case July 21, following which the court will make the awards to claimants. It is shown by the report that the expenses of the debt commission for a period of more than 25 years amounted to $1,094,016.60. The bondholders will receive from 71 to 95 per cent. of the face value of the bonds. Members of the debt commission and State Insurance Commissioner Jos. Button, who served as clerk through the long period, will receive $50,000 each for their services. There is now a total of $1,776,798.44 in cash on deposit to the credit of the fund, besides thirteen million dollars in bond coupons.

For the sea will never need you.
If you ask for the reason of every command
And argue with people about you,
Willie, my son, don't you go on the land,
For the land will do better without you.
If you stop to consider the work you have done
And to boast what your labor is worth dear,
Angels may come for you, Willie, my son,
But you'll never be wanted on earth, dear.

Moscow Dispatches Indicate Poles Desperate Over Crumbling Front

(London, July 12.—Bolshevik forces are moving forward on a 500 mile since the capture of Kiev from the Poles, according to dispatches from Moscow. The red troops have passed several cities beyond Rovno. One wired dispatch from the Soviet capital said "the most decisive moment has arrived." It was believed here that this statement clearly represented the situation.

The fact that Premier Grabski had gone to seek allied intervention was taken to indicate the Poles consider the situation desperate.

FOR BURNING ECZEMA

Apply Zemo, the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid—Easy to Use—Does Not Stain

Greasy salves and ointments should not be applied if good clear skin is wanted. From any druggist for 35c, or $1.00 for larger size get a bottle of Zemo. When applied as directed it effectively removes eczema, quickly stops itching, and heals skin troubles, also sores, burns, wounds and chafing. It penetrates, cleanses and soothes. Zemo is a clean, dependable and inexpensive antiseptic liquid. Try it, as we believe nothing you have ever used is as effective and satisfying.

Now She's The Happiest Woman—Always Ready For Fun and Work

She was just like hundreds of thousands of women—prematurely aged from overwork. Her hands were red from the scrubbing board. Her shoulders drooped from bending over a wash tub. She had rheumatism from getting wet while scrubbing clothes.

Now she is bright, happy and sparkling. Her hands are white and soft. Her shoulders are straight and confident looking. She seems years younger.

How did she do it? By washing in the easy Clean Easy way. No more miserable days for her. She lets Clean Easy Naptholeine Wash Soap do all the work.

Why, just imagine the ease of this: She soaks the wash over night. In the morning she cuts up ½ bar of Clean Easy into 4½ gallons of water and boils. As soon as the chips dissolve, the clothes are put in and stirred with a stick for ten minutes. She rinses, blues and dries, and the whole washing is done—for only a few cents! With no mean work at all. She is away on a happy day before her neighbor has scrubbed half her clothes.

Every woman can be as happy and contented as she is. Simply buy a bar of Clean Easy from your grocer. Use according to directions and you'll find a new pleasure in clean things and a new worker in yourself.

Note the different Clean Easy looks from other soaps—also how differently it works.

SPORTS

The Dreadnaughts and Jimmy Quayle sent the Gibraltar A. C. back to Washington with another defeat tied to them. Quayle allowed eight hits and fanned twelve men, making the local club's 23rd straight victory.

The Gibralter club used Beamer, their pitching ace, and shifted their line-up in an effort to be the only team to beat the locals, but when runs were needed the big D's heavy artillery smothered them.

The home club started out as though they were going to make it another walkover scoring one in the first and three in the second, but in the fourth the Gibs came back with three they should not have had, Hayden and Guiles each contributing an error, in the fifth the home team scored one but the Capital City lads would not be shaken off scoring two in eight, which tied the score at five all.

In the ninth inning the local team pulled off the best piece of baseball strategy that has been seen in this town in years, with a man on third and one out it looked bad for the locals and Summers, Deavers and Quayle held a conference at the plate, when play was resumed Deavers started in as if to play close for a bunt leading the Gibralter man about six feet off the bag, on the first ball pitched Summers made a lightning like peg to Guiles, who was covering third, getting his man by at least three feet. the Gibralter players and the local fans were so surprised for a moment that complete quiet prevailed until the full significance of the play struck them, then cheer after cheer rocked the new stand.

In their half of the ninth the home club came through in fine style, Deavers was passed, Frazier doubled and Summers drove them both in.

Strunkle, Frazier and Driefus furnished the fielding thrills while, Deavers, Frazier and Summers featured with the stick. Box score.

G. A. C. 0 0 0 3 0 0 0 2 0—5 8 3
D. A. C. 1 3 0 0 1 0 0 0 2—7 12 3

The Peerless Athletic Club baseball team, who won fourteen games in succession, were defeated by the Cardinal Athletic Club nine by a 8 to 4 score on the North Alfred street grounds Sunday. The Peerless boys are a great and fast combination and made many fine plays during the nine innings of play. Folliard pitched an excellent brand of baseball for the losers.

"Speedking" Jones added another jewel to his crown of wins. This laddybuck sure has the steam and his sizzling hot ones almost scorched the visitors. "Teddy" Schafer, the whirlwind catcher, was on the job to win and his two runs helped to turn the trick.

Neidfeldt, first base, was injured while sliding for first base after making a hit. "Beau" Hodges was put on the base to run for Neidfeldt and the fleet-footed second sacker tallied a run thereby. "Beau" Hodges played like a Lajoie on the mid station. He divided second-sack honors with Sullivan another star. McCann, third base, covered the hot corner like a hen covers her brood and did not let any of the "chicks" escape. Tetreault shortstop, fielded his position nicely, made true throws to catch baserunners, rapped the ball for a safety, and crowned his days' sport with a home run.

Jimmy Alexander, center field, played wonderful baseball at all times. His batting running, fielding and long throw that caught a Peerless runner at the home plate was one of the features of the game. Frank Owens, left field, aided his comrades by his timely batting that brought in runs and he also handled all chances in an errorless manner.

Manager Moran, of the Peerless team, complimented the Cardinals for their clean playing, and also the umpiring of Grover Payne who gave fair decisions to both teams at all times. While the Cardinals are proud of breaking the winning streak of the Peerless lads, the latter made the former go the limit to beat them.

Curtin, of the local boat club finished second in the 200-yard swim, one of the unofficial events provided to fill out the afternoon.

Too much cannot be said of the entertainment provided for the visiting oarsmen and their friends and the same is true of the way in which the regatta was conducted from the start. Every event on the program worked like a clock, started precisely on time and Captain Douglas, sr., who had charge of the work of getting the crews onto the river deserves no end of credit for his efficient work at the boat house.

The first race started exactly at 2.30 o'clock and the others followed at the exact time named on the programs. The last race finished at 6 o'clock, the time slated to see the end of the contest and the crews hustled into their clothes and were herded to the Westminster building where an appetizing luncheon had been prepared for them and where the regatta trophies were distributed.

Immediately following the dinner, they were directed to Elks' hall where a big dance furnished the entertainment during the remainder of the evening.

That the regatta was a big success may be taken by the members of the local committee as a distinct feather in their caps. Captain Jim Douglas, Jr. especially was one of the busiest men in the city Saturday afternoon and he was on the job all the time to see that everything was kept going in the right manner. Considerable credit is also due to Arthur H. Bryant, clerk of the course, for the manner in which he kept moving craft out of the way of the rowers and had the course open at all times.

Visitors from other cities were well taken care of by the local club and opinions expressed Saturday evening were to the effect that the Old Dominion club had furnished more real entertainment for visiting delegations than any other club in the association.

Following are the results of the races:

Intermediate gigs—Won by Ariel Rowing Club, (Healy, Strouss, Victor, Goldsmith and Stockett); second, Virginia Boat Club; third Potomac Boat Club. Time, 6.20 2-5.

The Old Dominion Boat Club is being overwhelmed with congratulations on the way in which the regatta was handled. In order to place the credit of having the schedule carried out to the minute, would say that it properly belongs to their most efficient captain, J. S. Douglas, sr., who together with the lieutenants, H. L. Wise, H. V. Quigley, Chief Mills and others, dispatched the boats in such a manner that there was not the slightest delay. This was something new in the history of regattas and shows that the local club was strictly on the job.

CALOMEL LOSING OUT IN SOUTH

Mr. Dodson, the 'Liver Tone' Man, Responsible for Change for the Better

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it," Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day.

MOVIES

RICHMOND —Charles Ray

The picture is filled with the delightful charm and wholesomeness that is characteristic of a Ray vehicle. It tells a dramatic story expertly enacted by a cast above the average screened by the master hand of Thomas H. Ince. Julien Josephson, who has the knack of writing Ray stories down to a science, originated the script, and Jerome Storm directed.

INGOMAR— Bessie Barriscale

In "A Woman Who Understood", Bessie Barriscale plays the part of Madge Graham, an aspiring young sculptress who operates a tea room in Greenwich Village, the artists' quarter in New York until she marries a young musician whom she has difficulty in holding because of the arts of a meddling woman. This Robertson-Cole Superior picture will be seen at the Ingomar tonight. The Lurking Peril will also be shown.

JUDGE SHOT AND KILLED

Partner in Exhibiting Horned Negro Taken Into Custody

Alma, Ga., July 12.—While locking his place of business at 10 o'clock Saturday night, Judge C. J. Medders was shot in the back and instantly killed. Judge Medders was fired upon from an automobile, a shotgun being used. Nine buckshot entered his head and neck.

Bacon county officers said they traced the automobile to the home Dr. John Dedge. The sheriff has ta Floyd Dedge, a son of Dr. Dedge, into custody in connection with the shooting.

Friends of Judge Medders say that he was warned early Saturday that he would be killed.

E. Sanford, who is employed at the plantation of Dr. Dedge, was arrested by Sheriff J. W. Googe last night in connection with the killing of Judge Medders. The sheriff stated that he had a warrant for Dr. Dedge, but could not locate him.

Several years ago, it was stated by close friends of Judge Medders, he and Dr. Dedge were said to have attached horns to a negro's head and tourned the country with the "horned" wonder.

SPARKLER VICTIM DIES

Seven Year Old Wilmington Lad Succumbs to Burns in Hospital

Wilmington, Del., July 12.—Alfred, the 7 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beattie of 2114 Biddle street, died at the Delaware Hospital Saturday from the effect of being burned by a sparkler on the Fourth of July. It is said that an older child threw the sparkler into the clothing of the Beattie boy and ignited it.

The case has aroused widespread interest, as City Council had been asked to pass an ordinance against the sale of sparkler but declined to do so, arguing it was so near July 4 that it would be unfair to the dealers.

Greenville, Ky., July 12.—When Mrs. Willis Graham, 26 years old, tried to stop her 4 year old son, Harold, from carrying a loaded shotgun out of their home near here Saturday, the child pulled the trigger. The full load entered the mother's breast, killing her instantly.

Good Light Lightens Labor : :

Lighting the kitchen is like lighting a factory. Good lighting quickens production, as the factory man would say. In other words, it makes work go faster without the expenditure of any more energy.

Of all places needing more light and better light the kitchen in most homes is one of the most important. And when you have doubled or trebled the light in your work rooms, try it also in your living rooms.

If you find that doubling or trebling the illumination there mean glaring light, don't cut down the amount of lighting again—shade the light better! Keep the direct rays from striking the eye. Throw some of the light to the ceiling and walls.

In every socket—in every room from cellar to garret—use only
EDISON MAZDA LAMPS

If you will do that, you will find that a great deal more light in the room is decorative, pleasing and restful. It's not the amount of LIGHT that you find irritating in some rooms, but the amount of GLARE.

OUR METER MEN REPORT THAT A NUMBER OF OUR CUSTOMERS ARE USING CARBON LAMPS. WHY NOT BE UP TO DATE? USE MAZDA LAMPS—BETTER LIGHT—LOWER BILLS.
